Next we honored our mothers at the Mother-Daughter Salad-Bar. For Thanksgiving the Sunshiners distributed Thanksgiving Baskets. One of our biggest events of the year was the Christmas Dance--Snowflake Fantasy. Our last big event of the year was the Ideal Ladies Tea. We hope that someone has benefited from our ability to spread sunshine and kindness into his life during 1967-68 as we fulfill our motto--"Others."

The Echo, published by the Typing II class, is distributed six times yearly, with various special editions published on special occasions. The purpose of the Echo is twofold: to inform the student body and to educate the typing class in newspaper practices.

Library Club

STANDING: Willie Mae Walker, Sue Longstreth, Lisa Cortez, Vicki Theis, Theresa Donis, Sheila Miller, Carolyn Misch, Phyllis Rice, Helen Martin. SEATED: Margaret Jones, Miss Brown, Lana Myers.

Eleven girls, five old members, are doing very well this year performing the various duties of student librarians. Some prefer putting white ink on books, hunting the correct number, stamping magazines, processing books or reading the shelves.

Art Club

STANDING: Chris Whitaker, Terry Umphryes, Rick Ferguson, Randy Ricker, Ed Ritchie, Ken Brooks, Carl Ricker, Harry Marshall, Paul Foster, Dave Whitaker, Mrs. Myers. SEATED: Sharon Veden, Bonnie Myers, Kathy Peregrine, Margaret Whitaker, Helen Martin, Debbie Bierma, Rose Tyre.

Because of a larger enrollment in art this year, the Art Club membership was increased to twenty. Our goal was to purchase a manually operated potter's wheel for ceramics class. This goal was reached by means of a fish fry which was put on in January.

Field trips planned for the year were to Valparaiso University to see an exhibit by Sister Corita, another trip with the Kouts High School art class to the Art Institute in Chicago, and a tour of the White Sign Company in Shelby to learn more about the art of serigraphy.

Junior Heart Board

SEATED: Joyce Davis, Carolyn Misch, Mary Bierma. STANDING: Mrs. Jeffries, Tom McNeil, Steve Woolever, Roger McCarty.

The Arcus staff has worked hard this year to produce a yearbook everyone will enjoy. The editor, Rachel Jamieson, and typists, Billie Jamieson, Gayle Davis, Ellen Yost, Bonnie Stalbaum, Mary Bierma and Bonnie Brouwer, deserve a large share of the credit for the book. Mort Harrington and his staff, John Jones, Roger McCarty, Mannie Martin, Dale Bagnall, Crystal Myers, Kay Salyer and Sally Marshall, sold more yearbooks than have ever been sold before. The staff hopes you enjoy the 1968 Arcus.

ATHLETIC

Coach Jones has built a winning combination around the trio who played on the 1967 Sectional Championship team: Jerry Caldwell, John Jones, and Roger McCarty. He has added two juniors, Terry Banks and Steve Woolever, to make the starting five. The others provide strong reserve strength. At the time of the picture, the team was fresh from a victorious holiday tournament, the Hanover Central Invitational.

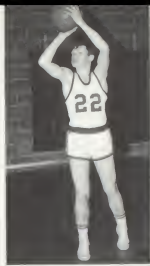

Jim Cambe, popular sophomore manager, was not present when the pictures were taken. He spends many hours working for the coach and the teams.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1.2 million (Office of National Statistics 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's services. The strategy is based on the following principles:

- Older people should be able to live independently in their own homes for as long as possible.

- Older people should be able to participate in the decisions that affect their lives.

The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives for the future of older people's services, including:
